Hello Linda-

I wanted to confirm that the units below aren't running this week. We sent legal notice on the units below on 4-18 and can't offer until 4-29. We will want them to run in the sale on 4-30.

Hello Linda-

These all need to run tomorrow. With month end being next week we can't afford to allow our units to sit. Too many people are riding on bonuses and this would cause a big issue.

1FTPX12554NA00514	2004 Ford F150 XL

I apologize; my boss cleared these in error last week. The units below are the only units we are unable to run to due to the legal sale date. These are the units I called you about and told you we needed to secure that day and I would tell you when we could run them.

Thank you!! I apologize again for making this more difficult for you. I'm making notes on the units that can't run in IMS. This way we are both in the know ☺

Thanks again!!!
